

Froebel

Activities in the kindergarten include singing, dancing, gardening and playing with the "Froebel Gifts".

Development through education is based on Froebel's three primary principles of the educational journey:

- Working in partnership with the family
- Transforming creative play into creative work
- Making connections with others, the world and God

