

NEW Parent's events with Kildare County Childcare Committee

Parenting talk with Joanna Fortune, Psychotherapist, attachment and parenting specialist.

Celbridge Manor Hotel, Celbridge, Co Kildare
Tuesday 7th November from 7.15pm

A chance for parents of young children to focus on how they can make the most of the time they have with their children, limited as it may sometimes be.

Joanna will talk about:

- the importance of play for children in terms of their development
- play as the language of children, and
- therapeutic play techniques that can be used by parents at home.

She will spend some time discussing questions from the audience as well as limited question time following the talk.

Refreshments and some finger food will be available to all of the well-deserving parents on this Tuesday evening, so why not make an evening of it, your whole family will feel the benefits!

Booking is essential! Bookings can be made by email to communications@kccc.ie or enquiries to 045 861307
